

Larry E. Daniel – Biography

Larry is the Technical Director for Digital Forensics at Envista Forensics.

He has over twenty years of experience in digital forensics. Some of Larry's more well-known cases include the Casey Anthony homicide case, the James Holmes (Aurora Colorado theater shooting, and the Dylan Roof (Charleston South Carolina church shooting) case, among others.

Larry was interviewed for the Investigation Discovery Channel show, "Crime Scene Confidential" about his involvement in the Casey Anthony case.

Larry holds nine certifications and has qualified and testified as an expert in computer forensics, cell phone forensics, GPS forensics, and cellular technology and call detail records analysis over seventy-five times in sixteen states and seventeen federal districts.

Larry is co-author of the book, "Digital Forensics for Legal Professionals" 2011, Syngress and is the sole author of the book, "Cell Phone Location Evidence for Legal Professionals" 2017, Academic Press.

Larry provides training via presentations and continuing legal education dozens of times each year, to attorneys, prosecutors, judges, and law enforcement,